HONGKONG, DECEMBER 25TH, 1911.

Ar Christmas play and make good cheer, for Christmas comes but once a year," is the advice given by an old English poet; and it must be admitted that it is advice which is cheerfully followed throughout Christendom. We remember, however, encountering in one of the Reviews a year ago an article in which it was asserted that Christmas as a popular festival was becoming increasingly unpopular, and that the family Christmas, such as we may read about in the literature of half a century ago, had almost entirely disappeared. The write did not disclose his place of abode, but in his narrow circle he became impressed with the waning enjoyment of the children and the growing boredom of the grown-up people who affected to join in their amusements. He declared that a man of fifty who looked back to his childish days and remembered the enormous imfportance and splendour of the Christmas estivities and gifts, not only in the halls of the then prosperous country squires, but in the middle-class families of towns; when Christmas was regarded as the season when all the members of the family within available distances gathered together, attended the Church which they had previously helped to decorate, gave each other presents, lighted up the Christmas-tree, played games, dined liberally, went to pantomines, kissed each other (when not too) nearly related) under the mistletoe, and generally were supposed to enjoy them-

Christmas never had busier times than he nevertheless entertained with the same hearty hospitality as of old. The mutations of time have necessarily brought small changes in the programme, but they leave the essenand if in such remote parts of the earth as

Hongkong, the observance of Christmas lacks something in its character as a home festival, we can at least say that it is not because the exile from Home, man or

ROBBING FROM THE DEAD.

LONDON, December &3rd. Reuter's Paris correspondent states that robbers have opened the grave of Madame Lantelmo, a favourite actress, and steles jewels from her body to the value of £20,000. -LATER.

The outrage on the body of the actress Lantelme has caused a sensation in Paris. The robbers scattered the images at the iltar and removed three shells. They stripped the body of the wrappings of cotton wool, which a fallen match fired, and the stifling smoke compelled them to retreat. The firemen afterwards extinguished the flames and found the jewels intact beneath the pillow at the head of the corpse.

BRITISH WARSHIP IN A GALE.

LONDON, December 23rd. During the recent great gale, the battleship London, which was on her speed trials, follows :-near Ushant, was swept by a sea and two of her crew were drowned. Commander Forbes was injured, and afterwards two men were seriously injured through a steam pipe bursting.

GALE IN THE NORTH SEA.

LONDON, December 23rd. The recent gale played havon with the fisheries, especially with French and British vessels. Nearly one hundred fishermen were drowned and many vessels lost. After many weeks of storms and almost continuous rain the wind dropped to-day, and the heavy weather gave place to sunshine. There is promise of a fine Christmas.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

Canton, December 22. PRECAUTIONS IN FATSHAN.

Robbers and brigands are still giving trouble round about Fatshan, and the soldiers there at present are not sufficient to keep the whole district in order, for when ever it is necessary for them to concentrate anywhere to quell a rising or capture son daring robbers the other pirates tal advantage of their absence in other quarters Junks have suffered very severely in this district and there is a wholesale outery for protection. A meeting held at Fatshan has decided to recruit one thousand men to be trained and form a provincial guard to protect commerce, especially on the river. The Governor's permission has been received and the matter is to be gone on with a

PROPOSED MONUMENTO

The Rebels have not forgotton their unsuccessful rising last April, and one is always hearing comparison, contrasts, masons, etc., for its fuiture. Especially are the leaders this unfortunate attempt remembered, most of whom lost their lives. Yesterday a proposal was put forward by a large num-" heroes" as they are always called, named Lam Kun Tsui, Chan King Ngan, and Wun Long Toi, who assassinated the Tartar General at the aviation meeting last April and who were afterwards beheaded. It is to be hoped that this matter will not get any further than talk, for it would be a very bad thing for the City of Rams to have a monument like this round which discord and fighting would be bound to take place. Besides, the present Government would be ill-advised to countenance anything of the kind in their present uncertain state. WINTER FESTIVAL.

Saturday was observed as a general holiday among the Chinese, the occasion being the Winter Solstice, which is one of four festivals held during the year. . This means a long week-end for business people, for little or nothing will be done with Christmas and Boxing Day coming on top of this. THE CLEVELAND TOURISTS.

The Cleveland tourists are coming here on Wednesday and Thursday, about 250 in number each trip. Arrangements have been made to have them conveyed from Hongkong by special steamer, the Kinshan having been chartered for that purpose, and on their arrival at Canton they will disembark at the Admiralty wharf by kind permission of the Authorities. I saw a letter from the Governor, headed "Kwang Tung Military Government," which is in itself significant, stating_that_they_would guarantee them protection and safe conduct through the city. The company is to proceed to the different sights in the city, going as far as the Temple of the 500 Genü and then to Shameen, entering by the rates ruling for American and Indian staple British Bridge, After going through the island they emerge by the French Bridge and thence along the new Bund to the wharf again to embark on the return voyage. The whole journey through the City will occupy about 21 to 3 hours.

SHAMEEN NOTES.

The fifty odd Marines who have been quartered here for the past month have been refleved to-day by one hundred odd men of the K. O. Y. L. I., who are being quartered in the Navál Canteen, as were the Marines, and in the Swimming Club's large premises. The residents in the island are very sorry to lose Captain Snepp, who proved very popular everywhere and whose cheery presence will be missed for a long time. The dance given by the Bachelor Taipans was held last night in the Cub Theatre and was a huge success. The attendance was highly satisfactory.

EWO COTTON SPINNING AND

WEAVING CO., LTD.. The sixteenth ordinary meeting of shureholders of the Ewo Cotton Spinning and Weaving Co., Ltd:, was held at the offices. of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co., Ltd., Shanghai, last week. Mr. C. E. Anton presided, and there were also present : Messrs. A. McLeod, E. E. Clark and Zee-Quan-yuen (Consulting Committee), A. Brooke Smith (Secretary), Brodie A. Clark, J. C. Dver, Kerfoot, R. U. Hummel, H. W. Daldy, R. E. Wilson, D. Brand; J. Johnstone, C. H. Butler, C. H. C. Platt and Paul

The CHARMAN said :- Gentlemen,-With your approval I propose to take the report and accounts for the year ended October. 31, 1911, which have been in your hands for some days, as read. During the first, half of the year under review, the margin between cotton and our products was far from encouraging, but an improvement set in in the Spring and lasted until the outbreak of the Revolution, at which time it may be said that demand for yarn was becoming increasingly good. The General ber of Cantonese to build a monument of Managers and Consulting Committee vensome sort, say, a temple, in front of the ture to hope that the result of the working provincial Assembly, to three of these of the past twelve months may be considered satisfactory and that the proposed apportionment of the amount at credit of profit and loss account will-have the approval of shareholders.

After providing for interest due on preference shares and the proposed dividend of Tls. 7 per share on the ordinary shares, the sum of Tis. 79,734.35 remains available for allocation, and I trust the desire of the Consulting Committee to build up our reserves by placing Tls. 40,000 to credit to equalization of dividend account will appeal to you. With the addition of that amount, Tis. 290,000 will be available as the provision against years of bad trade. Additions and improvements are continually being made to the machinery in the mills, and those necessitate the transfer of Tls. 30,000 to special repairs and renewals account.

The machinery in both mills is in excellent working order, and it is to be regretted that the suspension of business in yarn, owing to the Revolution, necessitated night work in the No. 1 Mill being stopped on November 12-at the moment, the Mills are only being run during the day. The yarn and cloth produced by our new Mill-now called the No. 2 Mill-was in good request until business came to a standstill in the middle

Your General Managers and Consulting Committee being well satisfied with the resulfs obtained from the first lot of Looms, have ordered a further number, and carly next year we should have 500 Looms in running order. The 1910-11 Chinese cotton erop was a record one, but prices were exceptionally high in sympathy with the in the controlling markets. As regards the size of this season's crop. it is impossible to form any idea, as, owing to the present disturbed state of the country, very little cotton is being marketed and receipts to date compare most unfavourably, with those of last year. My own opinion is that the growth is below the average; however, the American crop promises to be a record one and we may reasonably expect to see low prices all over the world for some months to come.

In common with other mills we had to put up with much adulteration in China cotton during the greater part of last season —the addition of water and other foreign matter became so serious that early this year a movement was made by several. firms here, and the Cotton Anti-Adulteration Association was formed, which, with the aid of the Consular and Diplomatic Bodies, succeeded in establishing the Shanghai Cotton Testing House. The Testing House, which is controlled by the Commissioner of Customs and the Committee of the Cotton Anti-Adulteration Association, commenced work early this season, and appears to be operating to the satisfaction of all interested in the Cotton trade. So far, it has certainly put a stop to excessive adulteration, and thanks of the mills and exporters are due to the Consular and Diplomatic officials who so energetically induced the authorities in Peking to recognize the imperative necessity of making an effort to place the raw cotton trade of this country on to a healthy basis.

A year ago my predecessor said: "It is practically impossible to say how we shall fare this year "-to-day, I can do no more than repeat his words and express the hope that, while the outlook is, at the moment, gloomy, peace may soon be arranged between the contending parties, that, at the next annual meeting, it may be possible to ask shareholders to pass an account equally satisfactory as the one now before you. If anyone wishes to ask any questions, I shall be pleased to answer them to the best of my

A dividend of 7 per cent, per share on the ordinary shares was authorised for payment on a motion by the Chairman seconded by Mr. Daldy.

The Chairman then proposed the re-election of the Consulting Committee, consisting of the representative of Jardine, Matheson and Co., Ltd., Messrs. A. McLeod. E. E. Clark and Zee Quan-yuen, This was seconded by Mr. Wilson and carried.

The final resolution, that Mr. Geo. R. Wingrove be re-elected auditor, was adopted on the proposition of the Chairman seconded by Mr. Hummel.

The Christmas mail was a particularly heavy one, and not a few plum puddings came to hand. It is to be hoped that these will prove to be as palatable as the denors desired, but even if they don't it will not matter much, as they would still be approciated for the kindliness and the remembrance which prompted their despatch. While there were happy recipients of parcels on Thursday and Friday there were many who had to rea iso that their friends at Home had not . However, the most important of the changes are those which seek to give to the Director of Public Works certain arbitary powers as Building Authority. The unofficial members with one accord opposed the proposal, and the explanation of the promoters that no better scheme could be devised was pooh-poohed by most of the trofficials who will no doubt set themselves to the task of proving that a better arrangement can be devised.

As a any rate it appears to be no longer of any conmatter of fact, the badge has hitherto been seen so seldom that nobody ever dreamed that it was significance given to Mr. Lloyd George's so ugly until the discovery was made in the speech at the Guildhall on the evening Colonial Secretary's Office. It is a worthy motive which prompts a to safeguard the rights of a minority, but when that minority does not even exist it seems like a sheer waste of goodness. On Thursday last the Legislative Council was startled when the Colonial Treasurer demanded recognition for the Clergy of the Church of Scotland in the list of voters and rebuked the Attorney-General for suggesting that such a person came under the heading of a Protestant dissenter, rightly point. ing out that the Church of Scotland was an Established Church. But when it transpired that there were no clergy of that ilk in the Colony the Treasurer bad sorrowfully to admit that there was no occasion for his taking further action. It does seem an anomaly that a Colony which boasts one of the largest gatherings of Scots in the For East cannot run to a national church. Does it mean that the Scot forgets his early training, the ten Commandments, and sundry other teachings when he gets East of Suez? I hope not.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION. Sir Edward Grey's speech on the Morecco It looks, too, as if we are going to have the difficulties in the House of Commons on Monday night has failed to satisfy public opinion-in this of good will and peneral happiess. A sloppy country. "Whoever expected it to foreshadow a change in Great Britain's attitude towards Germany has been mistaken." 'says the Cologne Gatette, frequently the mouthpiece of the Foreign Office in Berlin. He vindicates the policy he has pursued so far in the matter, and even the Opposition declares its approval of it-This was to be looked for, as it would have been contrary to the traditions of the British Parliament to leave the Government in the lurch on a question of foreign politics, which, although the danger point may be passed for the present, will continue to exercise an important influence on the general state of officirs for some time come. The Freuz Ze tung, the ultra-conservative organ, thinks that the speech, which has been applieded by all parties in England and appears to have somewhat relieved the tension there, was not conciliatory (entgegenkommend); "it has neither improved the situation nor made it worse, so that for the present everything remains as it was." All papers agree that the pacific assurances of Sir Edward and the hope he expresses of more friendly rein passing laws for the Colony, and it seems as lations with Germany in the fature lack warmth, but they admit that he is right in say ing that the process of reconciliation can be but . a slow and gradual one and cannot be accelerated Ordinance, and us others affected by the Bill Sir Edward states that England desires to live would like to be heard on the subject there is on terms of equality with Germany: let her every likelihood that it will not become law this prove it by no longer gradging us a place in the gun; but as long as she looks askance at our Edition of the Statutes of the Colony incom- colonial expansion and presumes to interfere in our dealings with other Powers, although her in terests are by no means concerned, we must doubt The Bill certainly makes quite a number of the sincerity of her friendly assurances. At the same time help them to overcome any scruples about | Sir E dward's statement with regard to the triple entents, that it would become an impossibility if one of its members were to barbour aggressive designs against Germany or any Power, has been noted with satisfaction.

The discrepancy in the statement of the Reichskanzler in his speech in the Reichstag the other day, that he had received no communications from the British Government between the let and 21st of July, and Sir Edward's assertion that he had several important interviews with the German Amb ssador during that time without being able to elicit any information, is generally commented upon, and it is asked why, if that was so, was not Sir Edward One could almost wish that Hongkong had Goschen, the British Ambassador in Berlin, in- lengthy one, included three-waltzes, as was structed to enquire of Herr von Bethmann-Hollwey himself. that the hospitality which he received in Europe | Brussels beet sugar convention at its expiration imagire that fereigners are philanthropists It may be remembered that up to the year 1902 high import duly on foreign sugar but granted premiums on exports of the native article as well. The consequence was, that beet sugar was sold cheaper in the English markets than at home, by which the preserving and other industries there benefited largely, whilst the growing colonies complained of being ruined by the low prices ruling. At their argent and reiterated representations the British Government entered into negotiations with the best producing countries for the abolition of export premiums, and a convention was concluded between the several Powers in Brussels in March, 1902, providing for a cessation of export premiums, a reduction of the import duties, and the exclusion of sugar from such countries as refused to join. Russia was the only one that remained outside, and her sugars were consequently shut out from the European markets. The result of the convention was that prices rose in Great Britain, which suited the colonies, but called forth remonstrances from the various trades that used the article, so that Government felt it necessary before renewing

the convention in 1907 to stipulate that England should be permitted to import 200,000 tons annually from Russia. This was conceded, but the latter Power now demands that the quantity be increased to 600,000 tons, and is supported in this by Great Britain, which, however, declares it self satisfied with an additional 300,000 tons, say, 500,000 tons altogether, both governments engag ing to renew the convention for another five years from Sept. 1, 1903, should their request be granted, but threatening to give notice to terminate the treety on Sept. 1, 1912, should no agreement be arrived at. The permanent delegates from the different countries who are about to hold their annual meeting in Brussele on Dec. 8 will therefore have to consider the necessity of convening a congress of representatives of their governments early in the new year to discuss the question, which may result in an abrogation of the sugar convention altogether and to a return to the old system of high protective duties and export premiums.

THE POLICE BALL

Although the atmosphere was rather sultry for dancing on Friday night, 7th annual ball organised by members of the Police Force drew a large number of terpsichorean enthusiasts to the City Hall. The function has become an institution in Hongkong, and the present ball was quite on a par with those of preceding years. The police who organised the ball were as assiduous as ever in attending to the comforts of their guests. The decorations were not on what could be termed a lavish scale, but they were as effective as could be wished. The staircase leading to the two halls was a mass of greenery and bunting, and St. George's Hall, in which the dancing took place, was prettily decorated with festoons of greenery. The supper tables were laid in St. Andrew's Hall, as of yore and the old Chamber of Commerce room was again the meeting place for numerous guests who found dancing too irksome and preferred to while away the hours by care playing. The bar was in charge of Messrs. Attewell, Clarke and Cockle.

Messrs, J. Ogg and Cockle were the card room committee, while the supper arrangements were carried out by Messrs. J. Watt and J. Grant. The decorations and the general arrangements in connection with the function were carried out by a general committee, of which Mr. Baker was the head. The secretary, Mr. Lee, has occupied the position for the past five years, and his energy was again responsible this year for the undoubted success attained. Dancing commenced at 'nine o'clock, and it is estimated that fully 250 dancers were present. The dance music was played by Maas, c Crawford, b Addison the band of the K.O.Y.L.I. The M.Cs. were Messrs, R. C. Watt, W. Stuart and A. Pattison. The programme, a very the case last year, two lancers, two valetas, quadrilles, military two step, an eightsome reel, La Rinka, D'Alberts, Caledonians, Boston two-step, Schottische, a barn dance, a polka, and a Sir Roger de Coverley. The programme was, in fact, almost the counter-

COMMISSIONS IN THE SPECIAL RESERVE OR TERRITORIAL FORCE.

The following dispatch from the Secretary of State for the Colonies is published in th Governmen! Gazette :--

Downing Street,

15th November, 1911. Sir,-I have the honour to inform you that the War Office have had under their consideration the question whether commissions in the Special Reserve or Territorial Force can be held by gentlemen belonging to the permanent Civil Service of the Crown Colonies and Protectorates, and that the Army Council have now decided

(a.) Commissions in the Special Reserve will no longer be given to gentlemen permanently employed in civil capacities in the Crown Colonies and Protec-

(b.) Officers of the Special Reserve who are at present holding, or who may in future accept, such permanent civil appointments will be called upon to resign their commissions.

2.—There is no necessity for an officer of the Territorial Force who has been seconded to resign his commission until he shall have reached the limit of the period (four years) during which he may be seconded from that

3.—The Army Council have further intimated that officers will no longer, be permitted to retire under the provisions of Article 510 of the Royal Warrant if they intend to take up permanent civil appoint ments in British Colonies and Protectorates. It is not meant, however, that the rule as to resignation of their commissions in the Special Reserve should have retrospectiveeffect as regards officers who retired under the above-mentioned Article and are now employed under Colonial Governments.-I have, etc.,

BOXING

A good house wilnessed the boxing at the City Hall on Faturday inght: Bill Lewis ac'ed as referee and the watch was in the hands of Mr. C. Bond.

The chief event of the programme was a twenty two-minute rounds bout for the 10 stone championship of the Orient letween Micky Dann of H.M.S. Minotaur and Stoker "Arnold of H.M.S. Monmouth. This went the full twenty rounds and ended in a draw. It was a good clean fight throughout, but owing to the continual cliuching was somewhat uninteresting The decision of the referee met with the approva of the andience.

There were four preliminary bouts. The first was between Ferrigan of the Minoteur and Littlejohn of the Tamar. The latter was altogether too good for his opponent and Ferrigan was in trouble from the start. The third round saw him lugging the boards for over 10 seconds.

Seamon Gummer of the Astrona and Seamon Skinner of the Monmouth next clashed, and mixed matters for a couple of rounds. In the third Skinner got in a heavy punch on to the jaw and Gummer had no further interest in the proceedings.

Sixtwo-minuterounds between Healy and Duff both of the Minctour, proved very interesting. Healy did most of the leading, and several times got his man into tight corners, but Duff cloverly smothered up and thereby evaded punishment. There was plenty of give and take and at the finish of the bout honours were easy.

Gunner Bost, 12 stone, and Seaman Steer, 11 stone, next took the arena. They smacked each other for the first two minutes, and provided a golden opportunity for witty remarks from some of the onlookers. In the second round Steer waltzed all over Burt and put him to sleep with a gentle tap on the point.

Myles challenged the winner of the Arnold-Dunn hout for a side bet of $400. Petter is inclined to meet Shuter.

SKIN IRRITATION

Came on Hands and Arms Like Little Blisters. Was Dreadful Would Break and Spread. Eased at Once and Quite Cured by Use of Cuticura Ointment and Soap.

Cured Baby of Rash and Sores, Too.

"Whenever I can recommend Cuticura Boap and Ointment, I shall be pleased to do so, as I consider them a household treasure, My hands and arms were covered with tiny small spots which caused me great irritation, and I had to walk my bedroom floor sometimes all night. Then I got a little Cuticura Ointment which eased the irritation at once. My husband got me some Cuticura Soap and more Cuticurs Ointment from the chemist, and now I see nothing of the rash at all. think the Cuticura Soap and Ointmen should be kept in every home." (Signed) Mrs. Annie Bingly, 50, Victoria Rd., Worksop, Notts., England, Apr. 17, 1910. In a later letter, Mrs. Bingly adds: "The cruption used to come at first like little white blisters, and the britation was dreadful Then they would break and spread, but by the use of the Cuticura Boap and Cintment I have got quite cured. I have also recommended to a friend of mine both the Cuticura Soan and Cintment for her baby. He was covered with rash and sores from his teeth. She is delighted with them, for they have cured her baby."

The Cutleura Remedies are the most ecphomical treatment for the skin and scale of infants, children and adults, a tablet of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cilifeura Ointment being often sufficient. Sold throughout the world. London depot; 27; Charterhouse Sq.: 7. U. S. A., Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston. Send for free Cuticura book an authority on treatment of skin diseases.
